

Corvallis Sustainability Coalition Guidelines for Use of the “sustainable-covallis” Email List

The Corvallis Sustainability Coalition (<http://www.sustainablecorvallis.org>) consists of organizations and residents in Corvallis and Benton County, Oregon working to accelerate sustainability. The “sustainable-covallis” email list (sustainable-covallis@googlegroups.com) is for members to share activities, events and resources related to sustainability.

Please observe the following guidelines for posting on the sustainable-covallis email list. Messages not adhering to these guidelines will not be posted.

1. Activities, events and community resources must be posted by Coalition Partners (Partner Organizations and/or Individual Partners) and must directly relate to sustainability in Corvallis and Benton County
2. Sustainability-related job announcements are allowed for the Corvallis and Benton County area only
3. Fundraising activities and fundraising events may be posted if they are sponsored by the Steering Committee, one of our partners or Action Teams and clearly related to sustainability in Corvallis and Benton County
4. Replies, questions or comments regarding a posted message should be directed to the message sender only and not the entire group.

Never permitted to be posted:

1. Advocacy for proposed legislation or candidates for office
2. Items for rent or sale.

Questions or concerns about the Google groups should be directed to the list administrator at sustainablecorvallisadmin@gmail.com
